Program description

This course is designed to prepare students for their IB and GCSE Spanish exams through focused, practical, and exam-oriented lessons.

Students will strengthen their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills, review key grammar and vocabulary, and practise with past papers, exam-style questions, and mock exams.

The program also includes exam strategies and personalised feedback, with preparation adapted to both Foundation and Higher Tier requirements.

General objectives

- Strengthen Spanish skills in speaking, listening, reading, and writing.
- Build confidence when using Spanish in exam situations.
- Develop effective exam strategies and time-management skills.
- Practise with past papers, exam-style activities, and mock exams.
- Identify areas for improvement through personalised feedback.
